

The Phenomenology of Human Dignity and Vulnerability

In this workshop, four researchers from Finland and Japan will gather to consider dignity and vulnerability. In a world where the future is uncertain, we will consider themes that are important to think about in these times.

admission
free

7TH JUNE, 2025
2PM-5PM

Room A347, Building A, Tsurukabuto 2nd Campus
Kobe University
Graduate School of Human Development and Environment

Speakers:

Irina POLESHCHUK, University of Helsinki

Phenomenology of Living-Pain: Shame, Guilt and Regaining Dignity in Long Lasting Pain Experience

Rui MATSUBA, Rissho University

Levinas and Figures of the Excluded

Joonas MARTIKAINEN, University of Helsinki

Losing a Voice of One's Own: Social Suffering, Shame, and Loss of Agency

Shojiro KOTEGAWA, Kokugakuin University

Phenomenology of "for the other"

Contact: Minae INAHARA
e-mail: minaeinahara@penguin.kobe-u.ac.jp

This Seminar is supported by JSPS KAKENHI Grant Number 23H04855 and KONE Foundation
Action Research Center for Human and Community Development